

Internship Offer – Biodynamik organic Community farm –

 (Keeken / Kleve)

-Hallo idealists, System critics, rebels with a cause, and passionate reformists.

Our Gardener Rogier is looking for full-time and part-time agriculture student interns. Rogier studied 3 years on the Warmonderhof in Holland and farms with care.

The Vlierhof is a international community, a seminar house, a care farm for talented misfits, and an aspiring CSA farm with 10 residents and and between 4-12 Volunteers from all over the world.

Most people speak Dutch and German on the Vlierhof, while English is our common language.

It is a community of shared responsibility and we daily eat together, while this is not mandatory, it does bring the community together.

Our offer:

- Practical experience in biodynamic farming - Rogier as your teacher/mentor.
- To supply the community and the seminar house with vegetables.
- To contribute and plan the preparations of our CSA farm this year and/or perhaps found the CSA farm in 2017.
- Freedom to contribute in your own way in alignment with your gifts and skills: Processing of vegetables → Marketing & Sales. Communication, designing a crop plan, other ideas, etc.
- Vegetarian food and board. Dormitory or private room depending on the length of your internship.
- Experience with sociocratic or holocratic decision-making.

What do we expect:

- Intrinsic motivation to work 5 days a week on the land and in the green greenhouse.
- Responsibility (ability to respond) and own initiative.
- The capacity to communicate your ideas to be able to work in and with team within an organic and social organization.
- Prepared to face conflicts within the community. To see conflicts as an opportunity for inner and outer growth.

- Experience or willingness to live in a community.
- The internship is relevant to your studies.

Contact us anyways, in case you don't study and feel drawn to this opportunity!_
